

This simple Course in Western Philosophy may be read as 50 concise concepts, or, by means of a simple code, each concept may be related to which one of the 5 aspects of Philosophy it belongs, and downloaded in book form.

It is called "5 Minute Philosophy" because it takes only 5 minutes to read each concept.

You can set your own pace to suit your own needs.

The Story of Philosophy	The Spirit of Philosophy	The Schools of Philosophy	Some Subjects in Philosophy	Some Scholars of Philosophy
1. Western Thought 2. Oriental Societies 3. Greek Philosophy 4. Roman Philosophy 5. The Rise of Christianity 6. The Church Fathers 7. The Schoolmen 8. The Modern Age 9. The 20th Century 10. The Bio-tech World   	Attitudes for Aptitude in Philosophy  P - Prejudice H - Humanness I - Indifference L - Longing O - Objectivity S - Scepticism O - Observation P - Perception H - Humility Y - Yes/No       	1. The Cynics 2. The Stoics 3. The Sceptics 4. The Epicureans 5. The Synoptists 6. The Pragmatists 7. The Existentialists 8. The Antinomians 9. The Analysts 10. Ordinary Language School   	1. Autonomy 2. BTF Patterns 3. Death/Immortality 4. Ethics/Morality 5. Fundamentalism 6. God - Does God Exist? 7. Meaning of :Life 8. A Philosophy of Science 9. Reality 10. Wisdom for Well-being   	1. The Pre-Socratics 2. The Athenian Trio 3. The Scientists 4. The Rationalists 5. The Empiricists 6. The Revolutionaries 7. The Germans 8. The Americans 9. The French 10. Philosophy: Old and New

Relate the concept to the code and compile yourself a book